Introduction

Welcome

Welcome to Grant County Schools.

The purpose of the handbook is to acquaint you with general Board of Education policies that govern and affect your employment and to outline the benefits available to you as an employee of the District.

Because this handbook is a general source of information, it is not intended to be, and should not be interpreted as, a contract. It is not an all-encompassing document and may not cover every possible situation or unusual circumstance. If a conflict exists between information in this handbook and Board policy or administrative procedures, the policies and procedures govern. It is the employee's responsibility to refer to the actual policies and/or administrative procedures for further information. Complete copies of those documents are available at the Central Office and online at <http://policy/ksba.org/g04>. Any employee is free to review official policies and procedures and is expected to be familiar with those related to his/her job responsibilities. Employees and students who fail to comply with Board policies may be subject to disciplinary action. 01.5

School council policies, which are also available from the Principal, may also apply in some instances. 02.4241

In this handbook, bolded policy codes indicate related Board of Education policies. If an employee has questions, he/she should contact his/her immediate supervisor or Matt Morgan, Assistant Superintendent for Finance and Personnel in the Central Office.

Future Policy Changes

Although every effort will be made to update the handbook on a timely basis, the Grant County Board of Education reserves the right, and has the sole discretion, to change any policies, procedures, benefits, and terms of employment without notice, consultation, or publication, except as may be required by contractual agreements and law. The District reserves the right, and has the sole discretion, to modify or change any portion of this handbook at any time.

Classified Personnel: Classified personnel may be paid on an hourly or salary basis, as determined by the Board. 03.221

Hours of Duty

Certified Employees: Certified employees are not allowed to leave their job assignment during duty hours without the express permission of their immediate supervisor.

Overtime

Overtime work shall be approved in advance by the Superintendent or designee. Weekend work by extended day employees must be pre-approved by the supervisor. 03.221

Time-Clock Procedures

Employees are allowed a "WINDOW" for each week; allowing them to clock in up to seven minutes before and/or seven minutes after their scheduled start and end time. Because of this window, minutes are rolled to the nearest quarter hour. However, if tardiness or leaving early becomes a habit, the supervisor would be instructed to revisit the required contract hours with that employee and take action.

Employees that are clocking in too early, and/or clocking out too late, (time outside the window) without their supervisor's approval will be disciplined. Supervisors are advised to conference with employees that habitually clock in/out beyond this window. If the supervisor agrees extra time is necessary, the additional time will be paid.

Employees are not to clock in/out for someone other than themselves. If an employee does this for an absent employee and misrepresents that the absent employee is a work, this constitutes fraud and discipline action will be taken. Approval can be given by the supervisor, to help someone check in/out if a medical condition is present or if a new employee is learning the system.

Affidavits need to be given to your Time clock supervisor upon your return to work if you are out for a sick day, etc. Failure to do so may result in an employee being docked for a day they did not appear for work, and intended to use a sick day, etc. (If you are out of leave days, you still need to turn in an affidavit that shows you have taken a docked day.) If you are going to a conference, etc., you need to notify the Time clock supervisor so she/he can load it in Time clock for you. This can be done in advance of the actual date.

GENERAL TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

Upon the supervisor printing the timesheets, the employee needs to review their time, and if all is correct, needs to sign it and give it to the secretary to send in to payroll. If a correction needs to be made, the employee needs to let the secretary know immediately, and a new timesheet can be printed for them and their supervisor to sign. All employees should view their time weekly, to lessen the need to make corrections after timesheets are printed. A correction sheet with a request for an adjustment in time will be required before adjustments to time will be made.

Secretaries/Supervisors: As a reminder to employees, please give easy access to the employees for the “adjustment of time requests” form.

FAQs:

What if I forgot to clock out the previous day? You must clock out, wait a minute (the time must change on the clock to another minute) and then clock in. Fill out a correction sheet, and have your supervisor/secretary adjust the missed clock out time from the previous day.

What if it is a few hours after my shift begins, and I forgot to clock in? Clock in immediately, and then notify your supervisor/secretary with a correction sheet requesting an adjustment of time so they can then correct your time.

What if I am clocked out, and my supervisor asks me to come into his/her office to meet with me? You are to clock in, and then upon completion of the meeting, clock out. This is paid time.

What if we are asked to stay later than our contracted daily hours for a mandatory meeting? You are still on the clock. You will be paid for extra time or your supervisor may let you come in later or leave earlier another day that week or during the payroll period to make the hours equal your contract hours.

What if I need to leave an hour early, and I don't want to take sick time? If your supervisor agrees to let you make up the hour, (it must be feasible that you have work you can do), you may do so. However, if you are a 40 hour per week employee, you must make up that time the same week in order to not throw you into overtime. If you work less than 40 hours per week, you could make it up during the payroll period. If your supervisor does not agree for you to make up the time, you would have to use sick time or be docked for the hour(s) you miss.

What about overtime? Most overtime needs to be pre-approved by your supervisor. However, there may be situations that cannot be pre-approved. Ex: Bad weather such as a tornado warning or snow, and students are not allowed to leave until the weather or road is cleared; a freezer goes down, a water leak/ a student is not dropped off at his/her location, and you are staying late to help with the situation. (For secretaries-Reports that are due, start of the year enrolling students, etc.) If an overtime situation occurs and you can not immediately notify your supervisor, you will need to give the details to your supervisor as soon as you can. Employees that purposely stay for overtime or extra time above contract hours without approval or a legitimate reason will be reviewed by their supervisor. Bus drivers do not need to seek pre-approval for trips.

If I am an eight hour employee and I work 5 hours and then go home sick for three hours, do I still get 4 hours of sick pay for ½ a day? This rule is still the same as it has always been. You cannot get sick time that will make you be paid extra time. Therefore, this would count as ½ a sick day, but only make your day add up to 8 hours. In order to help employees that only miss a few hours for dental appointments, etc. we do allow employees to take ¼ of a sick day.

Supervision Responsibilities

While at school or during school-related or school-sponsored activities, students must be under the supervision of a qualified adult at all times. All District employees are required to assist in providing appropriate supervision and correction of students. No employee shall send a student on an errand off school property. 09.221

Employees are expected to take reasonable and prudent action in situations involving student welfare and safety, including following District policy requirements for intervening and reporting to the Principal or to their immediate supervisor those situations that threaten, harass, or endanger the safety of students, other staff members or visitors to the school or District. Such instances shall include, but are not limited to, bullying or hazing of students and harassment/discrimination of staff, students or visitors by any party.

The Student Discipline Code shall specify to whom reports of alleged instances of bullying or hazing shall be made. 03.162/03.262/09.2211/09.422/09.42811

Bullying

"Bullying" is defined as any unwanted verbal, physical, or social behavior among students that involves a real or perceived power imbalance and is repeated or has the potential to be repeated:

1. That occurs on school premises, on school-sponsored transportation, or at a school-sponsored event; or
2. That disrupts the education process. 09.422

Human Resources

Insurance

The Board provides unemployment insurance, workers' compensation and liability insurance for all employees. In addition, the state of Kentucky provides group health and life insurance to employees who are eligible as determined by Kentucky Administrative Regulation. 03.124/03.224

Salary Deductions

The Grant County District makes all payroll deductions required by law. Employees may choose optional payroll deductions however; no optional payroll deduction shall be deducted from an individual employee's salary without a signed request from that employee affirmatively requesting the optional deduction. 03.1211/03.2211

Employees may choose from the following optional payroll deductions:

- Board approved Health/life insurance program;
- Board approved Tax Sheltered Annuity program;
- Other State approved deferred compensation plan;
- State-designated Flexible Spending Account (FSA) and Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) plans; and
- Membership dues in professional organizations, when three percent (3%) of eligible members request deductions. A professional organization for certified employees is one in which all teachers or administrators are eligible for membership. A professional organization for classified employees is one in which all members of a job class, i.e. bus drivers, custodians, etc., are eligible for membership. 03.1211/03.2211

Expense Reimbursement

Provided the Superintendent/designee has given prior approval to incur necessary and appropriate expenses, school personnel are reimbursed for travel that is required as part of their duties or for school-related activities approved by the Superintendent/designee. Allowable expenses include mileage, gasoline used for Board vehicles, tolls and parking fees, car rental, fares charged for travel on common carriers (plane, bus, etc.), food (as authorized by policy and/or procedure), and lodging. Itemized receipts must accompany requests for reimbursement.

Employees must submit travel vouchers within thirty (30) days of travel and will not be reimbursed without proper documentation. Should employees receive reimbursement based on incomplete or improper documentation, they may be required to reimburse the District. 03.125/03.225

Holidays

All certified employees and classified employees are paid for four (4) annual holidays as indicated in the school calendar. Certified and classified employees who work two hundred forty (240) days or more shall be paid for six (6) holidays. 03.122/03.222

The District will be closed on certain days as designated by the Superintendent. Check with your supervisor for those dates to ensure your work calendar is accurate.

Leave Policies

In order to provide the highest level of service, employees are expected to be at work and on time every day. However, when circumstances dictate, the Board provides various types of leave under which absences may be authorized. Employees who must be absent should inform their immediate supervisor as soon as possible.

Listed below is general information regarding several types of leave available to employees. Please note a written request, must be submitted for approval before leave begins.

Employees on extended leave who plan to return the next school year must notify the Superintendent/Benefits Specialist in writing of their intention to return to work by April 1. 03.123/03.223

Authorization of leave and time taken off from one's job shall be in accordance with a specific leave policy. Absence from work that is not based on appropriate leave for which the employee is qualified may lead to disciplinary consequences, up to and including termination of employment.

For complete information regarding leaves of absence, refer to the District's Policy Manual.

Personal Leave

Full-time employees are entitled to two (2) days of paid personal leave each school year. Part-time employees or employees who work for less than a full year are entitled to a prorata part of the authorized personal leave days. Your supervisor must pre-approve the leave date, but no reasons will be required for the leave. Upon an employee's return, an affidavit must be completed and sent to your supervisor for approval. Other limitations are set out in Policy. 03.1231/03.2231

Sick Leave

Full-time employees are entitled to ten (10) days of paid sick leave each school year. Full-time employees who work eleven (11) or twelve (12) months shall be entitled to eleven (11) or twelve (12) days respectively, with pay each school year. Part-time employees or employees who work for less than a full year are entitled to a prorata part of the authorized sick leave days. Upon an employee's return, an affidavit must be completed and sent to your supervisor for approval. Sick leave days not taken during the school year they were granted accumulate without limit for all employees. 03.1232/03.2232

See the "Retirement" section for information about reimbursement for unused sick leave at retirement.

Sick Leave Donation Program

Employees who have accumulated more than fifteen (15) days of sick leave may request to donate sick leave days to another employee authorized to receive the donation. Employees may not disrupt the workplace while asking for donations.

Applications to donate sick leave should be returned to the Payroll Office.

Any sick leave that is not used will be returned on a prorated basis to the employees who donated days. 03.1232/03.2232

Family and Medical Leave

Employees are eligible for up to twelve (12) workweeks of family and medical leave each school year, if they have been employed by the District for twelve (12) months, have worked at least 1,250 hours during the twelve (12) months preceding the start of the leave, and otherwise qualify for family and medical leave for one of the reasons below:

1. For the birth and care of an employee's newborn child or for placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
2. To care for the employee's spouse, child or parent who has a serious health condition, as defined by federal law;
3. For an employee's own serious health condition, as defined by federal law, that makes the employee unable to perform her/his job.

4. To address a qualifying exigency (need) defined by federal regulation arising out of the covered active duty or call to active duty involving deployment to a foreign country of the employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent who serves in a reserve component or as an active or retired member of the Regular Armed Forces or Reserve in support of a contingency operation; and
5. To care for a covered service member (spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin) who has incurred or aggravated a serious injury or illness in the line of duty while on active duty in the Armed Forces that has rendered or may render the family member medically unfit to perform his/her duties or to care for a covered veteran with a serious injury or illness as defined by federal regulations.

When family and medical military caregiver leave is taken based on a serious illness or injury of a covered service member, an eligible employee may take up to twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave during a single twelve-month period.

FMLA Certification Application must be completed and submitted before the leave can be approved. The Board reserves the right to request supporting documentation for any FMLA absence. An affidavit must be completed each time FMLA leave is used. If any supporting documentation/physician excuse is available, it should be attached. An employee has only three (3) days to submit a FMLA affidavit following his/her return for the time missed to be classified as FMLA.

Paid leave used under this policy will be subtracted from the twelve (12) workweeks to which the employee is entitled. Employees should contact their immediate supervisor as soon as they know they will need to use Family and Medical Leave.
03.12322/03.22322

Following is a summary of the major provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provided by the United States Department of Labor.

FML Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements - Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter, or parent is on covered active duty or call to active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered servicemember during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is: 1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or 2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

*The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current servicemembers and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections - During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements - Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, for 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

*Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition - A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave - An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave - Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities - Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities - Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers - FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- Interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- Discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement - An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.
