

Grant County Conservation District
Technical-Vocational Scholarship
486 Helton Street
Williamstown, Ky. 41097

The Grant County Conservation District will award two - $1000 scholarships to students pursuing appropriate careers in Technical or Vocational Education.
Students must be residents of Grant County.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be:

- Enrolled as a full-time or part-time student.
- Pursuing an associate of applied science degree or certification in a technical or vocational trade.

Applicants must be a student in good academic standing and have a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Students who are currently enrolled in the program, or students graduating from high school, may make application for the scholarship.

Those receiving their high school credentials through General Educational Development (GED) must be in the upper 50 percentile rank score in respect to the population of high school seniors across the United States on a standardized high school equivalency exam.

All applicants must submit: 1) a letter of personal reference; 2) a letter of recommendation from an employer or work supervisor (if applicable); 3) and a copy of the high school transcript or GED Certificate.

SELECTION AND AWARD OF SCHOLARSHIP

The selection criteria used to evaluate applications for award will be based upon the following:

- Intent to pursue a trade as a career.

- Aptitude toward these related fields as demonstrated through academic achievement in related courses, technical or vocational student organization involvement, and work history where applicable.
- Leadership demonstrated through participation in extracurricular activities and community involvement.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The stipend will be paid directly to the respective student account at the Institution the student is or will be attending upon verified enrollment. The scholarship may be applied toward the cost of tuition, fees, books, tools, and/or other needs associated with a student's education in the selected field.

STIPULATIONS

Upon accepting the scholarship, the student agrees to remain enrolled and attend classes regularly, and maintain a satisfactory academic standing.
