The program includes an alcohol and drug assessment resulting in a referral to either education classes or a more extensive assessment. This program is open to middle school and high school students who are under the age of 18 years. The mission of the EIP is to educate adolescents to make choices that reduce their risk for alcohol and other drug problems. An additional goal is to reduce the recidivism rate of the youth through screening assessments, prevention strategies, and referrals to community resources. We use the Prime for Life! Under 21 curriculums, this is a research-based educational program. This program is offered and held in Grant County on a regular basis.

NorthKey Child Crisis Stabilization Services

24- Hour Access Unit
877-331-3292

North Key offers short-term intensive therapy as a way of preventing needless hospitalization. The program includes a mobile unit, which will meet a child and his or her caregiver at a safe location in any of the eight counties of Northern Kentucky within 3 to 24 hours of the initial call. The crisis clinician will conduct an assessment to determine the needs of the child. If hospitalization is deemed necessary, the clinician will facilitate the process. If hospitalization is not appropriate, the clinician will provide short-term intensive therapy for a period of one to three weeks, which includes outpatient counseling, home/school visits and service coordination. Referrals can be made by calling the Access line. A sliding fee scale is available based on family size and income. Medicaid and other forms of insurance are accepted.

KYA is an independent, non-profit child's advocacy organization. We represent the interests of all Kentucky children by vigorously promoting positive changes in programs and policies that affect large numbers of children. Our strategies include research and analysis, case advocacy, public education, negotiation, legislative monitoring, and as a last resource, class-action lawsuits. Often youth or their guardians contact KYA if they believe that their service needs aren't being met by the school, court system, child protective services, or the juvenile justice system.

24-HOUR PARENT HELPLINE

(513) 961-8004

Parents can call our 24-hour Parent Helpline anytime, day or night, for support, parenting tips, crisis intervention, referrals, or just to talk. Often, a call is the parent's first step toward help. The single most important factor in the Helpline's existence is that it gives parents a way to act on their desire to get help- before children are harmed. During 2001, the Council documented almost 1,000 calls on our Helpline. In addition, over 3,000 calls requiring staff support was received on the business line.

Parents may choose to call:

- In times of crisis
- To find referral information in the community

Just to talk, because trained staff and volunteers are always ready to offer a listening ear.

THE CARE CONNECTION— United Way 211 Service
